Name and Governor Type	Hilary Beverley - LA
Background	I have worked in education all my life. I have taught in schools, further education and two universities. For a number of years I taught adults with learning difficulties in my role as a Basic Skills Tutor with North Lincolnshire Council Adult Education Service. I also have a doctorate in education and have been involved in school governance for a number of years.
Interests	I am interested in many crafts and take part in a number of craft workshops. I also enjoy walking with my husband and my dog, reading and camping.
Reason for becoming a governor at St Hugh's	I am particularly interested in maximising opportunities for young people with learning difficulties both in school and after they leave school. It is this that motivates to be a governor and this desire to stop young people with learning difficulties becoming invisible in our society has been the basis of my academic research.
