Dear Parents/Carers,

This Friday we will be holding our Remembrance service outside by our Remembrance garden. (The service will be in the hall if it is raining)

The focus is D Day which marked its 75th anniversary this year, remembering soldiers and saying Thank You for the sacrifice they made. Each team is placing a set of bootprints at the front of the garden to represent the servicemen who stood on the beaches of Normandy.

John Gallagher from the Royal Hospital Chelsea will be joining us again, the Reverend Sarah Tierney will be officiating the service and David Atkinson will be playing the Last Post and Reveille. We have veterans from the Lincolnshire Veterans Hub and the local T.A. centre sending representatives.

If your son/daughter is a cadet or scout they are welcome to wear their uniform and stand with John and Sarah during the service.

Please ensure that your son/daughter has a warm coat as we are outside for approximately half an hour.

Non uniform day will be on Thursday this week.

Yours sincerely,

Diane Coult
